

Acetazolamide

General:

Carbonic anhydrase inhibitors were initially used as sulfonamide diuretics, and then almost exclusively in glaucoma therapy.

Indication: Therapy monitoring

Material: 1 ml serum

TAT: 7-10 days, Germany

Method: HPLC

Units: mg/l

Ref.- range: 10 - 20, toxic >30