All Our Valuable Clients:

Dear valued clients,

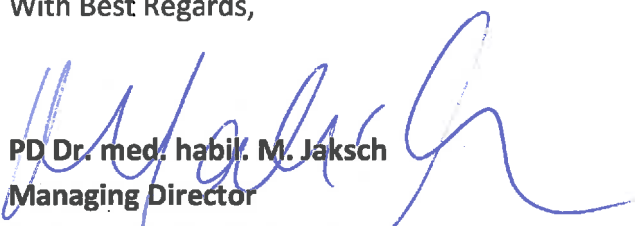

We are glad to inform you that FML has come into partnership with R-Biopharm (ImuPro).

Our continuous efforts are always to provide standardized work and faster turn- around time.

Now, this will apply for Food Intolerance Testing as well.

The test will be performed and reported by FML, with a TAT not exceeding 3 days.

With Best Regards,

PD Dr. med. habil. M. Jaksch
Managing Director
Freiburg Medical Laboratory

ImuPro, the Food Intolerance (IgG delayed food allergy) Test from R-Biopharm AG, Germany:

‘We are glad to inform you that Freiburg Medical Laboratory “FML” has become our new ImuPro partner for UAE!’

Worldwide, IgG mediated food hypersensitivities (common known as “food intolerances”) are causing health problems. The ImuPro concept offers solutions to patients and medical professionals.

ImuPro benefits include:

- Better turnaround time from July 2018
- Detailed test results, personalized guidance, and nutritional concepts
- ImuPro is a reliable high-quality product from R-Biopharm AG in Germany
- ImuPro is highly standardized and regular external quality controls are performed
- ImuPro has more than 15 years of experience with IgG intolerance diagnostics

Indication for ImuPro testing:

- Chronic disorders
- Gastro-intestinal disorders, such as IBS
- Migraine headaches
- Skin problems
- Weight problems, excess weight and obesity

Having over 40 international partners, R-Biopharm sets standards regarding the scientific background of IgG mediated food hypersensitivities. Several studies were performed with ImuPro tests in cooperation with the “International ImuPro Scientific Advisory Board”.

Freiburg Medical Laboratory is the new ImuPro partner for UAE, currently non-exclusive and with exclusivity starting July 1st, 2018.

FML has been performing our ELISA-test at their laboratory for many years and has taken part in the yearly ImuPro International Lab Comparisons, ensuring excellent reproducibility worldwide.

We are glad to offer ImuPro directly through FML in the U.A.E., as one of our international partners.
