

Acetazolamide

General:

Carbonic anhydrase inhibitors were initially used as sulfonamide diuretics, and then almost exclusively in glaucoma therapy.

Indication: Therapy monitoring

Material: 1 ml serum

TAT: 7-10 days*

Method: EXT

Units: µg/mL

Ref.- range: 10 - 20

For complete list of laboratory test offered at Freiburg Medical Laboratory, please visit <http://www.fml-dubai.com/parameter-listings/>