

Orosomuroid

General:

Alpha-1-glycoprotein is a polypeptide containing antenna-like oligosaccharids. Diagnostic significance as acute phase protein.

The following tests are available:

Indication: Diagnosis of sarcoidosis (M. Boeck) as well as therapy monitoring

Material: 1 ml serum

TAT: 7-10 days*

Method: Laser nephelometry

Units: mg/dl

Ref.- range: male : 40 - 120

female : 40 - 120

For complete list of laboratory test offered at Freiburg Medical Laboratory, please visit <http://www.fml-dubai.com/parameter-listings/>